

Mandi Evans*Leonard Clinton Williams III

Mandi,

I just talked to your dad. I have a very dire need to talk to you.

Please say nothing of this to anyone. There are rumors that go around about me, and I believe some involve you. They made it to Charlotte, via my former employer Wells Fargo.

My entire life is going to be all over the news in the next 3 months. I am concerned about the consequences of my life becoming a matter of public interest for you.

Please contact me asap.
